

COMMUNITY COLLEGE OF VERMONT

TUITION AND FEES POLICY

December 17, 1993

Revised: September 16, 2021

Page 1 of 1

POLICY

Community College of Vermont is an open-admissions, non-residential, public college providing affordable education each semester at 12 locations statewide and online.

PROCEDURES

1. Tuition levels are set annually by the Vermont State Colleges Board of Trustees, and are charged on a per credit basis for credit-bearing courses.
2. Fee levels are set annually by the president of the college in accordance with Vermont State Colleges' guidelines and include a non-refundable registration fee, independent study, field experience, course-specific fees, and graduation fees.
3. Additional fees may be assigned when deemed appropriate by the college.
4. For non-credit training, special offerings, or contracted courses, the college reserves the right to set all fees and/or costs as it deems appropriate.